CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

Boundary and Mud Bay Oyster
Company (Limited Liability).

THE UNDERSIGNED HEREBY CERTIFY that they desire to form, under the provisions of the "Companies Act, 1878," a Company, by the name of "The Boundary and Mud Bay Oyster Company (Limited Liability)," to continue in existence for fifty years, for the purpose of the cultivation, taking, importation, and exportation of oysters, including the planting and improving of oyster beds in the waters of British Columbia; the catching, purchasing, canning and packing, by the different modes of preservation, of salmon and other fish, meats, fruits, and other articles, and the sale of the same; purchasing, holding, and using fish-boats, steamers, and other craft, for the purpose of catching and conveying fish, and all nets, seines, dredges, or other lawful instruments for taking fish in British Columbia waters; with full power to do all matters and things necessary or in any way incidental to the business of the Company; and also to deal in lumber of every kind, rough and manufactured, and purchase and sell the same, and do all things necessary to carry on the business of manufacturers or sellers of lumber, and for doing all things incidental or conducive to the attainment of said objects.

The capital stock of the Company shall be $100,000, divided into one thousand shares of $100 each.

That there shall be four Trustees, that is to say: John Carmichael Haynes, of Osoyoos, B.C.; William Norman Bole, George Pittendrigh, and John Hanning Coulthard, all of New Westminster, B.C.; who shall manage the concerns of the Company for the first three months.

That the City of New Westminster is the City in which the principal place of business of the Company is to be located.

That a stockholder is not individually liable for the debts or liability of the Company, but that the liability of a stockholder is limited to his proportion (based upon the amount of his respective shares) to assessments legally levied, and the charges thereon, if advertised as delinquent during the time that he is a stockholder, upon a share or shares of which he is the holder, as shewn by the stockholders' register book of the Company. Assessments and charges thereon, when taken collectively, shall not exceed in the aggregate the value in dollars printed or shown upon each share when issued.

Dated, at the City of New Westminster, this 15th day of June, 1883.
